Amidst the stories making headlines these days are those about youngsters with too little to do. Idle time often leads to trouble and missed opportunities for learning and growing. That's why City Union Mission offers year-round youth programs that focus on God’s Word, education, life skills, character and social development, and fun-enriching activities. Here are 100 boys and girls to discover their potential and possibilities for their futures.

“Thank you for the summer camp because I loved it. I love to tell Jesus because I get to love Jesus.”—Amaniya

AMANIYA WANTED TO EXPLORE THE SAFE, ENVIRONMENTAL AND EXCITING OPPORTUNITIES CITY CAMP HAS TO OFFER. SHE WAS BLOWN AWAY BY WHAT SHE FOUND.

SUMMER WASN’T THE END FOR AMANIYA. She continues to attend our after-school programs and we were able to connect with her charter-school teachers to see where she was struggling — reading and math — and work with her in those areas.

ANNUAL EVENT BENEFITS
Kansas City’s Homeless Families

SuEllen Fried, Dr. Grace Ketterman and Sister Vickie Perkins were celebrated as the 2013 distinguished honorees at City Union Mission’s sixth annual Women Who’ve Changed the Heart of the City luncheon on April 16. More than 750 attended the event at the Sheraton Crown Center Hotel benefiting the Mission’s programs and services to uplift homeless women and families.

For the past five years, Women Who’ve Changed the Heart of the City has been named one of the top five luncheon events in Kansas City based on net dollars raised. In 2012 it was ranked number two!

From financial giving to buying online, the list is nearly endless when it comes to the number of opportunities to partner with us in extending our outreach to Kansas City’s homeless and poor.

Cash giving is always needed and appreciated.

If your company matches employees’ gifts, your contributions to the Mission will have twice the impact!

Noncash assets like jewelry, antiques and collectibles donated to the Mission will support our programs and services.

“Like” the Mission on Facebook and share us with your friends who want to help too.

Invite a representative from the Mission to speak with your group about serving the homeless in Kansas City.

Donate points you’ve earned toward airfare and hotel stays, lowering our costs for training and conferences.

Request copies of our new brochure to place in your church or business lobby.

Purchase items from our wish list on Amazon.com.

Pray daily for our staff, volunteers, donors, friends like you and all those we serve.
